To Whom It May Concern:

6/16/05

Throughout my properties investment experiences, I have come across many real state agents of all different level of knowledge, dignity, sincerity, and professionalism. But I have to admit that, I have not yet met anyone like Sepehr. He finds what I want not what he insists on selling it to me. He is the kind of individual I am glad to have on my side. He always knows how to answer my questions and how to find answers about properties on the East Coast. He also calls me to discuss opportunities. For example, my most recent transaction with Sepehr was a 1.1 million dollar property in Miami that he recommended to me. Now, I am working with him on another beach property in Miami for my vacation home. I count on him to make these purchases work for me and he does. I give him the highest, strongest recommendation and would recommend anyone to do business with him.

Please, do not hesitate to contact me if you have any concern or question.

Respectfully,

Alimorad Salartash, MD
